

Jeopardy Game Board Answers

We are going to play a game of Study Skills Jeopardy. This is your note area for the game. You must draw a picture to represent the idea or concept. . You may NOT use any words, letters, or numbers for your notes.

General Study Ideas	Note-Taking Tips	Textbook Reading Tips	Test-Taking Tips	Tips for Keeping Focused While Studying
You should review your notes and handouts on a _____ basis.	Ex: The most important aspect when trying to take notes? 	This means glancing through the chapter headings and subheadings	Before a test you should first:	Keeping your body _____ and alert will make studying much easier and allow you to retain more information
Studying everyday as if you have a test the next day is called what?	To give a summary of something or a general description; a plan giving the essential features of something but not the detail	What can you read at the end of the chapters to get the general idea?	In preparing for a test, you should not....	What can you do after studying for long periods of time?
Writing down due dates for these will help in general study skills	you should always leave _____	What does SQ3R stand for?	At what point should you relax and take slow deep breaths if you need to calm yourself down?	You should always get plenty of _____ when trying to stay focused while studying
Name a location where you can easily set a time to study	Always write down things the teacher _____	Read _____ if you are looking for a general idea	You should _____ questions you can't answer; go back and answer them last	Why is eating a balanced diet important in studying?
What is one of the most important habits you can have when trying to study?	When should you read over your notes?	Something you can do if you are looking for a general idea	You should take a deep _____ before entering the classroom and tell yourself that you will do well because you have prepared well	Above all else, you should always take time out for _____